Greetings from Akshara!

We are very happy to be associated with the Women Development Cell of Akbar Peerbhoy College and look forward to working with your students on different activities during this academic year. This is to extend a formal invitation to our introductory event 'Jashn-e-Yaariyan' on 18th August 2018.

The event will be held on 18th of August i.e. Friday, from 2.00 pm to 5.30 pm at Seva Kendra Hall, Portuguese Church, Gokhale road, Dadar west. It aims to address various topics which are relevant to the youth of today, such as 'cross-gendered friendship, friendship with the vulnerable, friend-zoning and consent.'

Along with fun activities of bonding, the event will constitute of talks by eminent resource persons from different fields who will be discussing on the above mentioned issues. We believe that the discussions will motivate students to resolve the issues of friendship among themselves and value their relations with friends!

We request you to send 20 to 25 students from your college. This event is open to the youth from all the colleges and we believe the boys and girls will find the topics interesting and thought provoking. We would like to spread the word as much as possible among your students!

The students will be provided with refreshments during the event, along with a participation certificate.

We would be delighted if you would be able to join us for the event, too!
