

REPORT ON NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF IPR

Anjuman-I-Islam's Akbar Peerbhoy College of Commerce and Economics' Department of Business Law collaborated with the Office of Controller General of Patents, Designs, and Trademarks, Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (NIPAM) to organise a National Level Awareness Programme in intellectual property rights, patents, designs, and trademarks. The programme aimed to give participants in-depth understanding about the value of intellectual property rights that they might use as researchers and students. Additionally, a thorough explanation of the patent process was presented. The workshop was hybrid in format and streamed live on YouTube and Google Meet. The program's co-convenor, Professor Ahtesham Shaikh, recited verses from the Holy Quran before the college's Principal Dr. Shaukat Ali gave a welcome address. The program's convenor, Prof. Vaishali Bankar, delivered a succinct introduction to the program's guest speaker, Mr. K. Narayan Murty, B. Tech, IIT Kanpur, Examiner of Patents and designs, group A gazetted. There were 79 different professors from various colleges who participated in the programme. The guest speaker started live presentation of his power point presentation on Intellectual property rights Mr. K. Narayan Murty slowly and elaborately explained the meaning of Intellectual property, the background of intellectual property, the patent, designs, trade mark, geographical indications, copyright, semiconductor integrated circuits, layout design, different IPs in a single product, relations between IPR, importance and significance. He very well explained about the famous inventor of patents, India's rank in patents, patent application filing, fees of the patent. He elaborated very well designs, industrial design, filing of design application. Then Trademarks, subject matter of trademark. He explained good trademark with various examples followed with the topic of copyright where he explained the application procedure, examination of application, geographical indication. he further discussed the career opportunities in IPR. He also participated in the participant's quiz competition. The workshop was really stimulating, and all of the professors showed keen interest. K. Narayan Murthy Sir was questioned on a variety of topics, and he provided satisfactory answers to all of their inquiries. Vice Principal Prof. Hemanth Jonnala's vote of gratitude brought the programme to a close. The Indian government issued certificates of participation to each participant. The workshop went well.
